Promissory Note to the Owners of El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center

promise to uphold the grounds of the El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center and to educate my attendees and vendors of the Rules and Guidelines of the venue. I promise to also inform them of the contracted agreement that pertains to all.

I promise that myself or guests shall not cause harm to the natural environment of the property, or the facilities both used and unused. If any vandalism is caused it is my sole financial responsibility to restore the property's integrity.

I understand that the El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center is part of a nationally recognized trail. Therefore, myself, my guests, and my contracted vendors promise to adhere to any set up placement, adjustments, or changes made by the Owners. I understand the Owners will intervene if needed in the case of safety, to prevent land deterioration and property damage, or to assist me in following contract agreement.

I acknowledge that this property is a business and a source of livelihood for the Owners. I acknowledge that this property is also the Owners responsibility to the United State of America in preserving the National El Camino Trail and the San Gabriel River. Consequently, I nor my guests will diminish the property and facilities in any way. I fully understand the importance of maintaining the natural environment of this property and will hold myself accountable if invoiced by Owners for damages, loss, or local fines of either local, state, or nation.

I recognize that this venue prides itself of its natural environment of wildlife and nature. I promise that myself and attendees will cause no obstruction to any water source, natural flow of water or land. Nor harm natural and unnatural plant life, tree, animal, or any other creation of God while on the property.

I promise to not cause conflict with venue employees between myself, guests, and vendors. I promise to have each vendor, bar tender, and working individual to sign this Promissory Note with the submission of their licenses and insurances of liability 60 calendar days prior to the Event Date.
