

Vendor Promissory Note/Waiver
Promissory Note to the Owners of El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center

My company/services of, _____ (name of company/individual) promise to uphold the grounds of the El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center and to educate my employees of the Rules and Guidelines of the venue. I accept that the Renter(s), have informed us of the details of the contracted agreement between venue and Renter(s).

I promise that all employees shall not cause harm to the natural environment of the property, or the facilities both used and unused. If any vandalism is caused by any employee, my organization will be financially responsible to restore the property's integrity.

I and my business waive any liability against El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center and will not hold the venue accountable for any equipment damage that may occur to personal and business items. Nor will I hold the venue liable for any bodily injuries or harm to myself or my employees, contracted or not. This is understood and agreed between myself and my employees.

I understand that the El Camino Real River Crossing Events Center is part of a nationally recognized trail. Therefore, myself and employees promise to adhere to any set up placement, adjustments, or changes made by the Owners. I understand the Owners will intervene if needed in the case of safety, to prevent land deterioration and property damage, or to assist my company in adhering to the agreed contractual terms.

I acknowledge that this property is a business and a source of livelihood for the Owners. I acknowledge that this property is also the Owners responsibility to the United State of America in preserving the National El Camino Trail and the San Gabriel River. Consequently, I nor my employees will diminish the property and facilities in any way. I fully understand the importance of maintaining the natural environment of this property and will hold my employees accountable if invoiced for damages, loss, or local fines of either local, state, or nation.

I recognize that this venue prides itself of its natural environment of wildlife and nature. I promise that my employees will cause no obstruction to any water source, natural flow of water or land. Nor harm natural and unnatural plant life, tree, animal, or any other creation of God while on the property.

I promise my employees will not cause conflict with venue employees for any reason. If required, with this promissory note/waiver I will email the mandatory proof of insurance to conduct business on the property no later than 60 calendar days prior to my clients Event Date.
